MEMORANDUM SPOILS

PREMIER ROBLIN'S LITTLE PLAN

Federal Government favorable to an extension of the boundaries of the Prairie Province.

Ottawa, April 3.—Sir Wilfrid Laurier submitted to Parliament today the memorandum of the reasons which induced the Governor-General-in-Council to postpone to a latter date the decision as to what is to be done with the proposal to extend the boundaries of Manitoba to the bay.

The publication of the memorandum at this moment will serve to destroy certain absurd stories which have been invented and put into circulation by Messrs. Rogers and Campbell of the Manitoba Government. The document shows that the whole matter has been considered on the basis of the public interests and makes the Rogers-Campbell inventions appear ridiculous.

The extension of the boundary westward, is definitely refused, for reasons that are plainly set forth; but so far from refusing the northward extension of the province to Hudson's Bay, the memorandum makes it quite clear that the Government is favorable to the project and will carry it out in the near future.

NATURE OF THE CONFERENCE

The document also clears up a very general misconception arising from Sir Wilfrid's speech in introducing the autonomy bills. On that occasion Sir Wilfrid said that Quebec and other provinces would be invited to a conference to consider the question, after the rising of Parliament. Some have taken strong exception to this under the impression that he meant that Quebec would have something to say as to whether Manitoba is to be extended to the bay, but the memorandum makes it clear that the idea is to have a general conference of the provinces to determine what disposition should be made of the unorganized territories lying across the Dominion to the north of the provinces.

There is a proposition to extend all the provincial boundaries northward to the very edge of the Dominion. This would give Ungava to Quebec, the Yukon to British Columbia, the Mackenzie basin to Alberta, etc. Should this rule be followed literally, however, the extension of Manitoba would not touch the bay. The whole western shore of the bay including Port Churchill would belong to Ontario. It is this fact which gives Ontario justification for interference, and makes necessary a round table conference between Manitoba, Ontario and the Dominion. The authorities here are entirely friendly to the contention of Manitoba as to the memorandum expressly sets forth and there is a good deal of wonderment as to what all the indignation and fuss in Manitoba is about. The memorandum in full is as follows:—

THE COMMITTEE'S REPORT

"The committee of the Privy Council have had under consideration, a memorandum dated 12th of January, 1905 from the Provincial Government of Manitoba, praying for an extension of the boundaries of the province westward to include a portion of the present districts of Assiniboia and Saskatchewan, and northward to Hudson's Bay.

"This request is not new. The committee recall that more than twenty years ago the Legislature of Manitoba addressed a memorial to his Excellency the Governor-General in Council embodying several petitions one of which related to the extension of the boundaries of the province in a westerly direction. The ministry of the day declared themselves unable to assent to this proposal. Their reasons are embodied in a minute of the Privy Council dated 1st of April, 1884, which may conveniently be reproduced here.

"The boundaries of Manitoba were originally fixed at the instance of the delegates from that province who came to Ottawa in the year 1870, to adjust with the Government of Canada the terms upon which Manitoba was to enter the confederation of Her Majesty's North American provinces.

"The limits then agreed to embraced an area of about 9,500,000 acres. In the year 1881 these limits were enlarged and territory added to the west and north making the real area of the province 95,000,000 acres or 150,000 square miles.

"In the same year the western boundary of Ontario was fixed as the eastern limit of Manitoba. The further enlargement now asked for by Manitoba would add about 180, 000 square miles to the already large area of the province and would be viewed with disfavor, as well by the old provinces as by the new districts of Assiniboia, Saskatchewan, Alberta and Athabasca, which have been created in the North West Territories and which will ultimately become provinces of the Dominion. It would largely add to the expenses of the Government without increasing the resources of Manitoba already pronounced by the Government of the province to be insufficient to meet its normal and necessary expenditures.

"The committee under these circumstances, humbly submit to your excellency that it is inexpedient to alter the boundaries of the provinces as prayed for."

CHANGED CONDITIONS

"These considerations which appeared conclusive to the Government of Canada in 1884, do not in its true possession any considerable force, when looked upon from the standpoint of the present condition of affairs. The settlement of the boundary of Ontario did not bring about the anticipated increase in the area of Manitoba and it has not been deemed wise to erect the provincial districts of Alberta, Assiniboia, Saskatchewan and Athabasca into four square provinces. On the contrary the measure now before Parliament provides for the division of these territories into two provinces, thus leaving an undeniable disparity between the area of the two provinces about 40 to be created and the area of the province of Manitoba.

"Notwithstanding that the committee have the utmost sympathy with the desire of the province of Manitoba to increase its area, it must be recognized that circumstances have greatly changed since 1881. When the addition was made to the province of Manitoba, of what is known as the 'added territory,' in the year 1881, there existed no serious obstacle to the extension of the boundary of Manitoba at that time from one to two hundred miles further westward.

"Unfortunately for the solution of the question in the manner described by the province of Manitoba, conditions have materially changed since that date. The strip of territory which is in the district of Saskatchewan, immediately to the westward of the boundary of Manitoba, is one of the best settled districts in the North-West Territories. It is not in the position in which it was in 1881, but on the contrary it is now a settled country, with defined and well established institutions, occupied by people who have in the main resided upon their present locations sufficiently long to become the owners of the property which they occupy. All information in the hands of or available to your committee indicates that the people occupy the strip of territory in question may be said to be unanimously and determinedly opposed to being united with the province of Manitoba. It is not for your committee to discuss the reasons for the existence of such a sentiment, nor whether there are just grounds for its existence or not.

TERRIBLE RESOLUTION

"In corroboration of the view above expressed a resolution of the Legislative Assembly of the North West Territories, passed on the 20th of May 1901, may be cited. It is not suggested that the resolution of the Assembly should be regarded as conclusively deciding the question for the Government of Canada, but it may be cited as indicating what the Legislative Assembly thought of the proposition which is now being considered.

"This House is strongly opposed to any further extension of the western boundary of the province of Manitoba, and in the opinion of the

To those who expect to want wire fence this season, Ross Bros. would like to call attention to the "LAMB WOVEN WIRE FENCE."

Many people will think that one wire fence is as good as another, but there are many reasons why some Woven Fences are better than others. The LAMB FENCE has a lock or fastening peculiarly its own. It is made from the best Galvanized Carbon Wire. Provision is made for the contraction and expansion, and it does not sag or buckle which is so annoying in a great many fences. The wires are heavy and strong, and are made to withstand the pressure or attacks of the largest animals, and any man can stretch it into place. House, any such extension would be opposed to the wishes and sentiment of the interests, not only of the portion of the territories more directly affected thereby, but of the Territories as a whole.

"The committee desires nevertheless to observe that the arguments above advanced and the resolution of the North West Legislature above referred to have been a long and a westerly extension. These objections do not seem to have been urged against an enlargement of the Manitoba boundary towards the north and it has been with a view to the future consideration of such a proposition, that Your Excellency's advisors did not include in the measure now before Parliament, for the erect on of the new province of Saskatchewan, the northern portion of the provincial district of that name.

"The committee are likewise of the opinion that the desire of the province of Manitoba for an extension of its boundaries to the shore of Hudson's Bay, is not an unreasonable one, and they would respectfully suggest that when the measures now before Parliament for the formation of the two provinces of Alberta and Saskatchewan are disposed of, the subject of such an extension of the boundary of Manitoba might profitably be considered.

"It is possible that in this connection questions may arise which concern other provinces inasmuch as the territories lying to the north of other provinces may be made the subject of requests of a character equal to that of the province of Manitoba in the present case. The committee therefore recommend that at a convenient date after the formation of the provinces of Alberta and Saskatchewan the extension of the province of Manitoba for an extension northward be taken up with the object of coming to a speedy conclusion, and trust that this suggestion may be acceptable to the Government of the province of Manitoba, whose welfare and development Your Excellency's advisors desire to promote in a way compatible with their obligations toward the other provinces of the Dominion.

"The committee advise that a copy of this minute, if approved, be communicated to the Lieutenant-Governors of Manitoba and Ontario, and at a latter date to the Lieutenant-Governor of Saskatchewan for the information of their respective Governments.

THE ROGERS-CAMPBELL YARNS.
The terms of the memorandum it will be seen are strangely in consistent with the tenor of the yarns that have been set afloat in Winnipeg by Messrs Rogers and Campbell. Though as yet it does not appear that they have formally admitted the responsibility for these rumors, the Citizen this morning contained a lengthy despatch from Winnipeg which contained this paragraph:

"The statement is made here that for weeks Premier Roblin and Mr. Rogers minister of public works for Manitoba, were in correspondence with Sir Wilfrid, and mutual interviews with him and were assured that the Dominion Government was favorable to extending Manitoba's boundaries. Generous expressions of good will were indulged in prior to the Dominion general election and even afterwards; but having decided to create two new provinces in the North West, vouchsafing to the ministry everything asked for as separate schools, the Prime Minister intimated that the extension when made must be north and east.

"Imagine the astonishment of men closely allied with Manitoba affairs, when a letter was received assuring them that Mr. Sbarretti, the papal delegate, would raise no objection to the enlargement of Manitoba's territory, providing the Provincial Government would guarantee separate schools within the added territory. This is stated on the authority of one who claims to have seen the documents and he says further that they will be made public before long.

CONSIDERED ON ITS MERITS

Most of the statements in this paragraph are inventions. Your correspondent has the best possible authority for saying that the references to Sir Wilfrid Laurier are unqualified falsehoods. Sir Wilfrid had no negotiations prior to February last, when the formal request for the extension of the boundaries was made and consequently he could not have expressed himself in the manner attributed to him. When the proposal was made it was considered on its merits in council, and at no time was there any suggestion from anybody that there was, or could be, any relation between the educational position of Manitoba and the suggested extension of the boundary.

The veiled references of the papal delegates are no understood here. If he intervened, his action was gratuitous, and a formal statement from Mr. Rogers or Mr. Campbell as to what passed between them is awaited with interest here. It appears from this statement that Mr. Sbarretti sought to make himself a party to the negotiations. The Government will undoubtedly demand an explanation from the delegate and will thereafter take such action as may be necessary to vindicate themselves in the eyes of the public. Pending these explanations there is a disposition here to regard the Winnipeg rumors even as they affect Mr. Sbarretti, as gross perversions.

CONVINCING WITH THE CHURCH.

It is known here that on the night of February 23, the day before he left for home, Mr. Campbell was closeted with the papal delegate. Mr. Rogers did not it is said, see him. There was nothing remarkable in it, but this conference—which was held it was noticed two days after Sir Wilfrid had declared his policy on the boundary question in the House—was not the first time that these parties had met. For a year past the Roblin Government had been dealing with Mr. Sbarretti, and though most of the negotiations have been carried on through Archbishop Langriva, there have been personal interviews between the delegate and Mr. Roblin and Mr. Campbell.

The nature of these negotiations is well known to a number of people, both here and in Winnipeg; and when these facts are made known, as they probably will be in the course of a few days, the people of Manitoba will be astonished, particularly those who are regarding Mr. Roblin these days as the stalwart defender of national schools. It is said that the church authorities have in their possession documents establishing the willingness of the Roblin government to amend the school law and re-establish separate schools under certain conditions.

DROWNING ACCIDENT

AT ATHABASCA LANDING.

Young Man broke through the ice and was drowned. Body not yet found.

Bulletin Special.

Athabasca Landing, April 7.—Last night about 8:30, Mediste Savayara, aged about 23 years, while crossing the Athabasca river on the ice at this place broke through and was drowned. The body has not yet been found. Though friends have been searching for it all day.

The ice in the river is breaking up fast and the river is now clear for a long distance both above and below the village and if the present weather continues we may look forward to early opening of navigation. The boat yards here all present a very lively appearance, there being thirty boats now on the way to construction.

A present the water is very low, in the river and should a rise not take place it will delay heavy draft boats in forwarding supplies up the river.

Large bushfires are raging all round here and if it continues dry there will be much damage done to timber limits.

"The South African Memorial Association has been organized for the purpose of erecting in the City of Toronto a monument to the memory of the Canadian soldiers, nearly two hundred in number, who were killed in action or died of wounds or disease while on service in South Africa during the Boer War, 1899-1902.

The following are the committees and presiding officers: General Committee, Sir William R. Meredith; Finance Committee, D. R. Wilkie, Esq.; Sites and Designs Committee, Colonel G. S. Ryerson; Hon. Treas., Lieut.-Col. James Mason; Secretary, Mr. Sydney H. Jones.

Joint meetings of the finance and sites and designs committees have been held, and as the result of their deliberations competitive designs were advertised for in the newspapers of Toronto, Montreal, Ottawa, etc. Of the thirty-six designs submitted for competition, one by Mr. Walter Allward of Toronto, was finally selected. From this design a sketch model has been made, an engraving of which forms the frontispiece.

The monument will consist of a granite column 70 feet in height, with three bronze figures each 9 feet in height at the base, representing Canada sending out her soldiers, the whole surrounded by a bronze winged figure, eighteen feet in height, representing Peace.

"On panels around the base will be engraved the name of every Canadian who was killed or who died on service during that war, thus making it not a mere local memorial, but one representative of the whole Canadian people.

The cost of the monument will not exceed $35,000, of which sum $5,000 has already been guaranteed by the Government of Ontario, and $5,000 by the Corporation of the City of Toronto.

"The general committee believes it to be the duty of everyone to contribute his share towards commencing the self-sacrifice, the sufferings, the heroism and the patriotism of those Canadians who laid down their lives in defence of and to uphold the principles of the Empire in the South African War. You are therefore requested to aid this worthy and patriotic work by your influence with your friends, and with such corporations, institutional or other organizations as you may be connected with, so that a monument worthy of the event which it commemorates may be erected as a perpetual memorial of the bravery and patriotism of Canada's sons of the present day, and which will prove an incentive to future generations.

Subscriptions may be remitted to the Honorary Treasurer, Lieut.-Colonel Mason, 78 Church street, Toronto.

STATHCONA.

(From the Plandeleter)

We are pleased to be able to state that the injuries sustained by Master Bonus Typer at the Windsor Hotel have proved not very serious. It seems marvellous that a trunk falling on his head from a second story window did not give him more than a deep scalp wound. His skull was not fractured, and the injury is no longer any day.

Laid out on our table this week was a remarkable egg, the product of an enterprising Plymouth Rock hen in the possession of Mr. W. H. Baker, who lives in the west end. It is the most peculiar shaped egg that ever graced the editorial table of the Plandeleter. At the large end it is less than an inch in diameter and tapers gradually to a point at the other end, the total length being two and a quarter inches. At the small end there is a little pig-tail-like appendage, curled back on the body of the egg, which adds in-interest to the novelty. Mr. Baker informs us that the biddle that laid this currency is one of his best hens and usually produces fine large eggs. It is suspected that she was working overtime in the performance of her duty when she accomplished the feat that has made her famous.

Notices are posted calling attention to the fact that the Board of Trustees of the Strathcona public schools purpose issuing debentures for $24,000 for the erection of a new school building, said debentures to extend over a term of thirty years and bear 5 per cent interest. The date of the notice is April 4 and ratepayers have fifteen days from that date to file a demand for a poll if they wish it. Such a demand from twenty ratepayers will be respected.

Messrs. W. T. Morrison, D. McDougall and Alex Murray and their families and Messrs. E. J. Mills and George Murray, all of Kinnmount, Ontario, arrived from the east by special train yesterday morning. They brought with them three cars of settler's effects. They will settle along the line of the C. N. R. about 200 miles east from here. Mr. Mills visited this district eleven years ago and says he wishes now he had stayed. When they left Ontario ten days ago there was still two feet of snow on the ground.

Some extensive improvements are being made at Walter's mill yard just now. A stable is being built to accommodate seventeen teams of horses that are used in connection with the business. A steamboat is being built in the boat yard which will ply on the river between Strathcona and the log dumps up river, doing business chiefly for the lumber firm. It will be 88 feet long and 18 feet wide, drawing 12 inches of water when loaded. It will be a side-wheeler and with the machinery now being put on will be able to make four miles per hour up the stream.

EDMONTON DISTRICT.

FROM THE STRANGER'S STAND-
POINT.Favourable Situation of the City.—
Facilities for cheap power for manufacturing purposes.]

"That the eyes of the world are focused on Western Canada and that every district in this great country is aware of it, is quite evident to one who is continually travelling from place to place and notices the cosmopolitan increasing influx," said Mr. C. H. Webster to a representative of the "Bulletin" in an interview this morning. "Of course, being engaged in furthering immigration by writing up this vast Western country and setting forth the very numerous advantages obtainable by becoming a resident, would doubtless cause me to take into account many things that would escape the notice of the casual observer. There exists no doubt in my mind regarding the prosperous future in store for your City, Edmonton is destined to become a great railroad centre and with the immense stretch of country lying to the north as well as the fertile valley of the Saskatchewan to the east and west for many miles that is rapidly being opened up, to supply, practically assures it becoming a distributing point as well as a manufacturing centre. With fuel obtainable at such a low cost the manufacture's greatest problem is solved and to me the possibilities in the power line offered right at your doors by the swift flowing Saskatchewan appear unlimited. In reference to the resources of your district," said Mr. Webster, "considering the climate, some of the most tender fruits can be grown as well as vegetables of good size and quality, and winter-wheat of a high grade is possible. At present these are only at the experimental stage, but results so far have been very encouraging, being private enterprises entirely. One of the immediate needs of Alberta is the establishing of an Experimental Farm and to me this north-central district appears the most advantageous. I learned with pleasure that your Board of Trade is already taking steps towards securing such an establishment."

"What do you think of the discovery of petroleum recently made in this vicinity?" asked the Bulletin man.

"Much depends on the quantity and quality," he replied. "The possibilities and wealth of this commodity is practically without limit, when the many uses of the article are considered, being used for fuel as well as lubricating and lighting purposes. This, along with the deposits of natural gas and ultimate harnessing of the powerful Saskatchewan, practically eliminates the expensive power proposition that confronts most large centres of industry."

"Few people of the outside world realize the advanced stage this city has already reached, your extensive water-works system and municipal electric-light and telephone plants, the latter having a rural connection that reaches villages and towns for many miles, along with the Electric Railway now being built throughout the city and surrounding district; places you on a level with the most advanced and class cities of Eastern Canada. All things considered, the increase in population from 2600 to upwards of 7000 within the last three years is not surprising, but merely another proof of the large city Edmonton is destined to be."

Mr. Webster is connected with the Publicity Department of "Resources," the official organ of the Western Canada Immigration Association, and is in the city for the purpose of securing information, on and further introducing that journal in this district.

OVER LOOBY'S HARNESS SHOP.

IN the Manicargua district in Cuba the best tobacco is usually grown on the hills. A clearing is made on some sunny hillside as a seed plot to secure a natural hot bed for seedlings. The expert tobacco growers select only the lusty, healthy plants for transplanting, and these are carefully tended during their 40 days' growth. Invariably secure leaves from a plant that has not been allowed to grow stringy from ripening leaves. I get the choicest leaf from the well-matured plant—for I know from that kind of leaf I make a cigar that will give a delightful smoke with the fugitive odor of roses in it—that is the characteristic odor of my Pharaoh Cigar.

J. BRUCE PAYNE, Limited, Granby, P.Q.

A leaf from the Connecticut Valley—its broadest kind—and a Sumatra leaf I import from Amsterdam—are the other features that make my Pharaoh a delicious smoke.—J.B.P.

TO BE OPENED AT THEATRE

Mr. Richard Secord announces that he has completed arrangements with C. P. Walker, manager of Mr. Harold Nelson and his excellent company to reopen the Thistle Rink as a Theatre on April 17th. The rink is being dried out, the stage and chairs are being placed and arrangements have been made to thoroughly heat the building. As a place for amusements, the Thistle Rink ranks with the best in Western Canada, the stage is probably the largest west of Winnipeg, while the lighting could hardly be bettered.

Mr. Nelson is presenting on this trip elaborate productions of the stirring drama, "Paul Kaurar" and his greatest success, "Rochelle," and on the large stage of the Rink will have an opportunity to use his special scenery to great advantage.

ALBERTA'S OPPORTUNITY

The following editorial suggestion appears in Collier's Weekly.

"Just at the time when the tide of unrest was turning from the Western Territories of Canada to the southwestern Territories of the States, remarkable tales of oil came from the western half of the Dominion. Land holders north of Montana declare they have something far richer than wheat. Oil prospectors have hastened to the scene, wells have been drilled, their flow measured and plugged, the operators sworn to strictest secrecy, while the most improved oil machinery is imported. If the prediction be true that the southern part of Alberta is one vast oil well, Canada has the only unincumbered opportunity to secure the supremacy over that industrial corporation in the states which has grown to such proportions of power as to threaten the very government itself. Its octopus-like operations are already so alarming that one state has openly faced it and declared it to be an enemy of the republic. If Dominion laws can keep this rich deposit of Alberta in the hands of independent operators, protecting competition and disallowing special privileges, this one territory alone may lead its contribution to Canadian wealth and in acquiring that wealth bestow a most concrete blessing upon the people of the states."

LOCAL.

—The C. N. R. is applying at the current session of the Dominion Parliament for an act authorizing the construction of the following railways: From Regina, Assn., to the Red Deer River, Alta., with a branch west of the Saskatchewan river to township 45, range 4, west of the third meridian; from Regina to Humboldt, thence via the Carrot River to Pas Mission, on the Saskatchewan River, by the company's Prince Albert branch; and from some point on the main line under construction west of Battleford, into Battleford. Securities to the extent of $20,000 a mile may be issued in connection with the construction of these branch lines.

—Macleod Advance: A man named Joseph Nesbitt, aged 40 or thereabouts, committed suicide last Sunday evening. Nesbitt's livery stable being chosen as the place in which to commit the rash act. An employee entered the stable about 9:15 and was startled to see the body of a man swinging from an overhead rafter in an empty stall near the front door. When cut down life was extinct. While other people were at their devotions in the various churches, Nesbitt was arranging to end a career made miserable by domestic trouble. It is stated. His wife is here. The man was well known to many here, being a resident of the district for several years. He is said to own considerable property in the neighborhood of Medicine Hat.
